Global Initiatives Directors: Megan Ihde Ann Marie Correa	Medical Spanish Class Cultural Presentations 11/21 Cultural Awareness in Nursing Example	Don't forget next Medical Spanish Class is Nov. 21st and start working on the cultural presentations! Cultural Awareness in Nursing Example: Original Scenario—Birth Rituals: A Chinese couple experiences the birth of their first child. The nurse on the postpartum floor is alarmed to find the room very hot and the couple refuses to have the baby bathed. The mother refuses to eat any hospital food or bathe. In addition, the nurse complains to the physician that the body odor is overwhelming in the patient's room. Culturally Sensitive Approach The physician ensures that all personnel involved during the birth and postpartum time understand that many Chinese people believe that cold liquids and baths will harm the mother and baby. Special foods are believed to be of paramount importance for the proper cultural initiation of the baby and mother.
